

List of Effective Proposal Essay Topics

1. Going Green will Save Businesses Money - Explore environmental problems and show how going green can not only reduce one's impact on the environment, but could also save money.
2. Removing Soda Machines from Schools Can Help with Childhood Obesity - Discuss the implications of soda machines in schools and the correlation between early obesity and soda consumption.
3. Natural Lighting Can Boost Retention - Arguments for natural lighting allowing students to think more clearly and thus retain more information in school.
4. Ways to Improve Productivity of Office Workers - Productivity is also a topic of concern, show how this problem causes company to lose money and ways to improve levels of productivity.
5. How to Increase College Retention Rate - College retention rate is vital as it is the mark of how many students return to finish their education, make proposals for how to improve this rate.
6. Strategies to Improve GPA - GPA is a reflection of the level of commitment and effort put into education, poor GPA's are not conducive to good overall performance, suggest solutions.
7. Ways to Get Students Involved in Extracurricular Activities - Lack of involvement in student groups, find ways to make them attractive and viable to new generations.
8. Local Efforts to Improve Literacy More Effective Than National Efforts - Illiteracy is still a problem in the US, how can local efforts glean better results than a national effort?
9. Involvement in Community Improves Life Satisfaction - Community involvement at an all time low while life satisfaction scores are too, how being involved in the community increases happiness.
10. Dorm Living Does Not Improve Student Grades - Dorm space at a premium and often required as it is argued that grades are better, show otherwise.
11. Local Recycling Programs will Help Landfills - Landfills are stretched to the brink in many places, illustrate how recycling programs will not only make the community greener, but it will also reduce the strain on the landfill.

12. Mobile Devices and Increased Accidents - Distraction leads to accidents, show how distraction by mobile devices increases accidents and promote banning the use of devices on the roads.
13. Banning Texting While Driving Saves Lives - Distraction a leading cause of accidents, banning texting while driving will leave people less distracted while on the road.
14. Social Media Reduces Social Politeness - Politeness at an all time low, the faux-anonymity of the internet causes us to lose our manners.
15. Conflicts Arise from Excessive Use of Social Media Outlets - Conflicts increase with excessive use of social media, promote reduced use for better social relations.
16. Coeducation Should Be Mandated to Improve Educational Experience - Mandatory coeducation helps improve socialization as well as broaden the educational experience.
17. Banning Smoking On Campus Improves Health - Smoking a problem with college age students who spend most of their time on campus, banning smoking will reduce smoking in campus population.
18. Participation in Student Government Should Be Mandatory to Teach Students About Leadership - Lack of leadership skills correlates with a lack of participation in student government, show how mandatory participation will improve leadership skills.
19. Allowing Animals in Apartments Leads to Longer, Better Tenants - Landlords have difficulty finding good tenants who will stick around, having pets has been shown to improve lives, allowing pets could lead to longer term, better tenants.
20. Getting More Students to the Writing Lab will Improve Essay Grades - Essays and writing skills are often not what teachers would like them to be, show how use of the writing lab improves overall writing skill and quality.